CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

“Amid this complex operating environment, China Lilang Limited adhered to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price” and out-performed its competitors through improving its products and supply chain, as well as adjusting its retail store network, which has enabled it to maintain steady business performance and a sound financial position. The Group’s core brand “LILANZ” has weathered the challenges under different market conditions and has built its strength. ”

To all shareholders,

The political and economic environment was complex and volatile in 2016. Significant policy adjustments are expected as a result of the passage of the Brexit referendum in the UK and the change in government leadership in the US, and the economic growth continued slowing down in China. All these have considerable impact on the economic and consumer sentiment. Amid this complex operating environment, China Lilang Limited (the “Company” or “China Lilang”, together with its subsidiaries known as the “Group”) adhered to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price” and out-performed its competitors through improving its products and supply chain, as well as adjusting its retail store network, which has enabled it to maintain steady business performance and a sound financial position.

The Group's core brand "LILANZ" has weathered the challenges under different market conditions and has built its strength. In the second half of 2016, the Group expanded and enriched its smart casual collection and opened specialty stores of the collection in cities such as Beijing, Shanghai and Tianjin on a pilot basis. Featuring a diverse range of products with stylish designs and a clear market positioning targeting the first- and second-tier cities, a strategy that taps well into the menswear market, the specialty stores performed satisfactorily within the first year of opening. It is an evidence of the capability of "LILANZ" to expand beyond its current market in third- and fourth-tier cities and set foot in first- and second-tier markets.

In view of the preliminary results of the expansion of "LILANZ" smart casual collection and the anticipated changes in the consumer apparel market, the Board plans to focus on the development of the smart casual collection in the next few years in order to speed up its development in first- and second-tier markets, thereby further strengthening the leading position of "LILANZ" in China's menswear industry. As for the sub-brand "L2", due to intense competition in the youth apparel market, the investment return of the business has been unsatisfactory. Hence, the Group has decided to gradually discontinue this business and focus its resources on developing "LILANZ" smart casual collection which provides greater potential and better returns.

For 2016, both the revenue and profit of the Group dropped. Revenue decreased by 10.3% year-on-year to RMB2,411.6 million and net profit, after provisions for the proposed discontinuation of "L2", decreased by 13.6% to RMB539.9 million. In response to the economic environment, the Group adjusted down distributors' orders for its 2016 fall and winter collections and also continued to adjust its retail store network with a view to ensure a healthy level of channel inventory and maintain its overall competitiveness. Despite weaker results, the Group has strengthened its business and continued outperforming its peers.

The Board recommended the payment of a final dividend of HK16 cents per ordinary share and a special final dividend of HK6 cents per ordinary share for the financial year, which will bring the total dividend for the year to HK40 cents per share.

Looking forward into 2017, as the European countries enter their election year and there are policy changes due to the new US government, the global economic outlook is highly unpredictable. Uncertainties will continue to hurt consumer confidence, therefore the consumer market outlook is not too optimistic. China's menswear industry is yet to gain momentum and it is expected that the industry consolidation will continue.

The Group will continue with its direction over the past few years and adhere to the strategy of "improving product quality without raising the price", with a view to gain popularity among new and existing consumers by insisting on providing originally-designed and quality products, as well as high-standard services at affordable prices. The Board is confident that the Group will continue to outperform other industry peers and targets to gain market share amid the industry consolidation.

The Group will focus its resources on developing "LILANZ". The smart casual collection will be one of the key areas of development of the Group in the coming years, particularly the expansion into first- and second-tier markets with this collection. In order to better promote the overall development of the smart casual collection, the Group plans to establish a separate design and operation centre in Shanghai in 2017, so as to keep the team abreast of market trends and the preferences and responses of consumers, in order to expand its market share more effectively.

Since the ability to offer quality products is key to the success of a brand, the Group will continue to invest in product research and development, striving to further enhance the originality and value-for-money as well as the overall competitiveness of its products.

For retail network, the Group will maintain a prudent approach to store opening and will continue to focus on store efficiency improvement. The total store number of "LILANZ" is expected to be broadly steady in 2017. The Group plans to continue to open new stores in suitable locations through distributors while closing down low-efficiency stores. In particular, more stores will be added in shopping malls in provincial capitals and prefecture-level cities. The Group expects its retail stores to continue to achieve positive same-store sales growth through better products, effective channel management and optimization of the store network.

In addition to the traditional sales channels, the Group plans to set up a dedicated team for online sales in the second half of 2017, laying the foundation for more aggressive expansion of its online sales business.

The 2017 fall trade fair just ended in early March. We are glad that the number of trade fair orders increased and the Group has recorded a high single-digit growth in order value.

2017 is the thirtieth anniversary of the Group since its founding. With the unyielding efforts to forge ahead in the face of hardships over the last three decades, the Group has developed both craftsmanship and team spirit. These qualities enable China Lilang to build strengths and confidence to achieve breakthroughs, to pursue better results and adhere firmly to our beliefs, and to make "LILANZ" a popular brand with style and elegance. Looking ahead, the Group will continue to adhere to its multi-brand strategy and also proactively enhance the competitiveness and value-for-money of its products to further consolidate China Lilang's leading position in the menswear industry, so as to sustain a long-term growth and reward its shareholders, employees and customers for their support to the Group.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The global economic environment remained complicated in the second half of 2016. The Brexit referendum passed in June had upset the balance of the global economy. In the US, rising expectations of rate hike following the presidential election in November triggered capital flows from emerging markets to the US and led to high volatility in both the equity and currency markets, leaving the economic outlook uncertain. In China, overcapacity faced by the manufacturing industry continued to discourage investments from the private sector, further slowing the economy. The government is committed to reform and dealing with risks and challenges by focusing on the supply-side structural reform with moderate expansion on aggregate demand, which helped sustain a steady economic growth. According to the National Bureau of Statistics of China, GDP increased by 6.7% year on year to RMB74,412.7 billion in 2016, representing a stable growth on a quarterly basis. Income of both urban and rural residents maintained relatively rapid growth rates, and consumer prices recorded a moderate increase.

In view of the uncertain economic outlook, the apparel industry continued to suffer from fragile consumer sentiment. According to the statistics from the China National Commercial Information Center, retail sales of the top 100 domestic large-scale retailing enterprises fell 0.5% year on year in 2016, widening by 0.4 percentage points as compared with last year. Among which, the retail sales of apparel products decreased by 3.3%; and the menswear industry showed no clear signs of recovery.

China Lilang Limited continued to innovate and transform its business. Adhering to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price”, the Group is committed to improving its competitiveness through enhancing the originality and value-for-money of its products so as to capture the market. The Group also continued to improve its supply chain and retail channel management and, as a result, store efficiency has improved and the healthy development of the channel is maintained. The retail stores continued to achieve mid-single digit same-store sales growth.

Meanwhile, the Group extended the market position of “LILANZ” and focused on developing first- and second-tier markets. Apart from supporting distributors to open stores in shopping malls in first- and second-tier cities, the Group is also optimistic about the growth potential of smart casual apparels in first- and second-tier markets, and has opened specialty stores for “LILANZ” smart casual collection on a pilot basis in cities such as Beijing, Shanghai and Tianjin in the second half of the year, which has received positive response from the market.

However, under the inevitable impact of sluggish consumer demand and fierce competition, with particularly intense competition in fashion apparels for the youth, the business performance of the sub-brand “L2” has been unsatisfactory. After assessing the prospects and investment return of “L2”, the Group has decided to discontinue the operation of “L2” from fall 2017, and it will focus its resources on exploring the brand potential of “LILANZ”.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

Revenue for 2016 decreased by 10.3% year on year to RMB2,411.6 million, which was mainly due to the impact of channel inventory of the 2015 fall and winter collections and store closures. Sales of the core brand “LILANZ” decreased by 8.7% to RMB2,238.0 million, which was in line with the trade fairs numbers. Sales of the sub-brand “L2” decreased by 25.2% to RMB173.6 million. The Group repurchased off-season inventories of approximately RMB22.0 million in total from distributors during the year. Sales of “LILANZ” and “L2” accounted for approximately 92.8% (2015: 91.1%) and 7.2% (2015: 8.6%) of the total revenue respectively.

Among the product categories, tops remained the major contributor in terms of sales and accounted for 66.0% (2015: 66.9%) of the total revenue, sales of which decreased by 11.2%. Sales of accessories decreased by 6.9% and accounted for 7.8% (2015: 7.6%) of the total revenue. Among which, footwear, the major item, accounted for 59.5% (2015: 56.5%) of the total sales of accessories.

Revenue by Region

For the year, the North Eastern China region and the South Western China region were most affected by the channel inventory of 2015 fall and winter collections, and their sales decreased by 21.2% and 15.7% respectively. The North Eastern China region also had the highest proportion of store closures, and its store counts decreased by 18.2% during the year. Sales in the Northern China region recorded a decrease of 4.4% for the year. The decline slightly narrowed in the second half of the year as sales in Inner Mongolia jumped after the change of its distributor in the first half of the year, and this partially offset the double-digit drop in the sales in Hebei and Shanxi. Sales in the Eastern China region, Central and Southern China region, and North Western China region all had a high single-digit drop.

The Eastern China region and the Central and Southern China region remained the top contributors to the Group’s revenue, and together accounted for 58.6% (2015: 57.1%) of the total revenue. The retail stores in these two regions accounted for 50.6% (2015: 51.3%) of the Group’s total number of stores.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

Gross profit margin was down by 1.2 percentage points to 41.3%, which was mainly due to the more competitive pricing of products under the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price” and the lower wholesale prices offered to some “LILANZ” distributors in the second half of the year to support their expansion in first- and second-tier markets.

Cost of sales decreased by 8.4% to RMB1,415.7 million (2015: RMB1,546.2 million). Cost of in-house production, including sub-contracting charges, accounted for 61.8% (2015: 55.5%) of the total cost of sales, up by 6.3 percentage points.

Other Net Income

Other net income increased by RMB43.3 million to RMB97.6 million, which was mainly due to the increase of RMB42.1 million in government grants received for the year. The entitlements of these government grants were unconditional and under the discretion of relevant authorities.

Selling and Distribution Expenses

Selling and distribution expenses decreased by 11.7% to RMB252.4 million, and accounted for 10.5% of the total revenue, down by 0.1 percentage point over last year. Advertising expenses and renovation subsidies decreased by RMB30.8 million to RMB192.5 million for the year, and accounted for 8.0% of the total revenue, down by 0.3 percentage point. Renovation subsidies for the year were incurred for the renovation of newly opened stores of “LILANZ”, the repairs and maintenance for old stores and the renovation of stores identified for stock clearance purposes in the second half of the year.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses amounted to RMB171.3 million, up by RMB61.8 million over last year and accounting for 7.1% (2015: 4.1%) of the total revenue. The expenses in 2016 included the additional provision for trade receivables of RMB70.6 million. In addition to overdue trade receivables for which full provision was made in accordance with the Group’s policy, provision had also been made for trade receivables of “L2” which were considered doubtful in view of the proposed discontinuation of “L2” starting from 2017 fall season.

Profit from Operations

Profit from operations decreased by 16.5% to RMB663.4 million, which was mainly attributable to the decrease in sales, decline in gross profit margin and the provisions made for the proposed discontinuation of “L2”. Operating margin decreased by 2.0 percentage points to 27.5%.

Net Finance Income

Net finance income was RMB83.4 million for the year, representing an increase of RMB14.0 million year on year. During the year, foreign exchange gain of RMB39.7 million was recorded from the forward foreign exchange contracts entered into by the Group’s subsidiaries in 2015 to hedge their exposures to non-functional currency deposits and loans. This offset the foreign exchange loss of RMB5.4 million and the decrease in interest income due to the lower average interest rate for the year.

Net Profit

Net profit was RMB539.9 million, down by 13.6%. Net profit margin decreased by 0.8 percentage point to 22.4%. Net profit attributable to the core brand "LILANZ" amounted to RMB600.5 million (2015: RMB673.7 million), representing a decrease of 10.9% year on year. Net loss attributable to the sub-brand "L2" after provisions for the proposed discontinuation of business, amounted to RMB49.6 million (2015: net profit of RMB10.8 million).

Earnings per Share

Earnings per share was RMB44.66 cents, down by 13.8%.

Final Dividend

The Board recommended payment of a final dividend of HK16 cents (2015: HK17 cents) per ordinary share and a special final dividend of HK6 cents (2015: HK7 cents) per ordinary share in respect of this financial year, representing a total dividend payment of approximately HK$266.0 million (equivalent to approximately RMB239.3 million). The final dividend and special final dividend will be paid in cash on or about 16 May 2017 to shareholders whose names appeared on the register of members of the Company on 4 May 2017.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Retail and Distribution Network

The Group continued to manage the retail and distribution network effectively to enhance the Group's overall competitiveness. During the year, the Group maintained a prudent approach to new store opening and pragmatically supported its distributors in optimizing their retail store networks with a focus on improving store efficiency. Meanwhile, the Group continued to open stores in shopping malls in provincial capitals and prefecture-level cities in view of the change in consumption habit. By the end of 2016, there were over 100 such stores in total, and their sales performance has been in line with expectations. At the same time, the Group is optimistic about the growth potential of smart casual apparels in first- and second-tier markets and has opened specialty stores for its smart casual collection in cities such as Beijing, Shanghai and Tianjin on a pilot basis in the second half of 2016 and the sales performance has been encouraging.

As at 31 December 2016, the Group had a total of 2,575 stores. "LILANZ" had a net decrease of 260 retail stores at 2,400 retail stores, mainly due to the closure of low-efficiency stores in response to the actual operating conditions and the decrease in the number of shop-in-shops in department stores. "L2" had a net decrease of 150 retail stores at 175 retail stores.

Changes in the number of stores in different regions during the year were as follows:

Region	Number of stores
	As at 1 January 2016	Opened during the year	Closed during the year	As at 31 December 2016
Northern China	285	39	84	240

Sales Channel Management

The Group has adopted a distribution model under which its products are sold to end consumers through retail stores operated by distributors and their sub-distributors. Therefore, effective sales channel management would enable the Group to establish its brand presence and improve service quality so as to boost its sales and minimize its exposure to the risk of channel inventory. The Group has established a stable relationship with its distributors, and all distributors of “LILANZ” have maintained business relationships with the Group for over a decade.

The number of stores by operator and by channel was as follows:

	LILANZ		L2
	As at 31 December 2016	As at 31 December 2015	As at 31 December 2016	As at 31 December 2015
By operator:
Self-operated stores	2	2	0	0
Stores operated by distributors	916	994	121	216
Stores operated by sub-distributors	1,482	1,664	54	109
	2,400	2,660	175	325
By channel:
Street stores and stores in shopping malls	2,029	2,186	79	250
Shop-in-shops in department stores	371	474	96	75
	2,400	2,660	175	325

As at 31 December 2016, the Group had two self-operated “LILANZ” flagship stores; 916 and 1,482 other “LILANZ” retail stores were operated by 80 distributors and 999 sub-distributors respectively. For “L2”, 121 and 54 retail stores were operated by 25 distributors and 52 sub-distributors respectively.

There were a total of 2,400 “LILANZ” retail stores with an aggregate retail area of approximately 289,800 square meters (31 December 2015: 302,500 square meters), representing a decrease of 4.2%. “L2” had 175 stores with an aggregate retail area of approximately 20,800 square meters (31 December 2015: 36,200 square meters), representing a decrease of 42.5%.

The Group continued to provide training to the management teams of its distributors. Training courses provided to the sub-distributors in July 2016 covered team building, concepts and methods of placing orders, store renovation and opening promotion as well as automating and refining the management of stores. Meanwhile, the Group continued to monitor channel inventory through the ERP system, which connects to all stand-alone stores. Distributors were encouraged to place orders based on their own inventory levels and estimated sales performance as well as to operate discount stores prior to store renovation and set up temporary promotion counters in department stores in order to clear inventory.

E-channel Development

The Group sees e-channel as an important business development platform in addition to the traditional sales channels and plans to establish a dedicated team for online sales in the second half of 2017 to explore online sales business more aggressively.

Currently, the Group continues to use “T-MALL” as a major online sales channel to sell “LILANZ” and “L2” products. Except off-season products, the products and prices offered online are the same as those in brick-and-mortar stores. Besides, the Group started developing application systems based on the WeChat platform since last year. A customer relationship management system on the WeChat platform has been launched during the year and VIP customers can now purchase products from local stores through the WeChat platform and enjoy home delivery services.

Product Design and Development

The Group believes that product design and development is the key to success in China’s menswear industry. As such, the Group continued to strengthen its design team and enhance product originality while improving the individuality of its products in order to differentiate itself from its peers. When adhering to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price”, the Group has also been committed to cost control and the enhancement of its products’ value-for-money. Original design products accounted for nearly 65% of the Group’s products for 2016, of which about 30% adopting the proprietary fabrics developed by the Group. In the medium- to long-run, the Group intends to raise the proportion of original design products to 70%, of which 50% will adopt the proprietary fabrics developed by the Group.

As for product design, the international and domestic research and development teams for the core brand “LILANZ” worked with each other closely and smoothly, which has added an international flavor to the brand, differentiated its products from those of its peers to a larger extent and enriched its accessory product portfolio. Meanwhile, “LILANZ” has expanded and enriched its smart casual collection during the year.

Inheriting the simple yet fashionable design concepts of “LILANZ”, the collection caters for the enormous market demand for smart casual apparel of high value-for-money in the first- and second-tier markets, which has received encouraging response from these markets.

During the year, the Group set up its domestic design team for womenswear and continued to have a small collection of womenswear for the fall and winter seasons, which were available in large-scale stores so as to boost their sales efficiency.

The sales of the high-end collection continued to increase, with its percentage to total revenue climbing from about 5% a few years ago to about 13% in 2016. This growth in percentage to sales is particularly obvious in the stores in shopping malls in first- and second-tier cities. In 2017, the foreign designer originally transferred from “LILANZ” to “L2” would be re-assigned to take charge of the design of the high-end collection, with an aim to further boost the sales of that collection.

Marketing and Promotion

The Group continues to focus on store image for its brand promotion, therefore upgrading the image of large-scale stores is an integral part of it. From 2015, large-scale stores newly opened in first- and second-tier cities have adopted the sixth-generation store image which uses better quality decoration materials and the design is more elegant and stylish with a better use of retail space. In the second half of 2016 and the full year of 2017, the Group plans to renovate or partially upgrade about 800 stand-alone stores in suitable locations with the sixth-generation store image. Special promotion sales will be held in those stores before renovation work to clear inventories. By the end of 2016, a total of about 350 stores have been renovated.

To raise the effectiveness of its promotional campaigns, the Group continued to take different opportunities for advertising. In 2016, the Group has started to place advertisements in Electric Multiple Unit (EMU) stations, and also continued to place advertisements through advertising signs in airports and road side billboards as well as soft-sell advertising in magazines and newspapers.

Trade Fairs

The 2017 spring and summer trade fair of “LILANZ” was held in August 2016. Both the total order value and average unit price recorded a high single-digit decrease year on year. Amid this challenging environment, the Group continued to commit itself to maintaining a healthy level of sales channel inventory and implement the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price”, with a view to promote same-store sales growth of its distributors. Shipment of the above orders has commenced in January 2017.

The 2017 fall trade fair just ended in early March. Thanks to the control over the fall and winter orders in 2016, while the retail sales of “LILANZ” continued to outperform other industry peers, the channel inventory for fall and winter products has returned to a healthy level. The distributors have high confidence in the Group’s products, which improved the trade fair orders and the Group has recorded a high single-digit growth in order value.

Headquarters, Production and Supply Chain

The construction of the Group’s new headquarters commenced in the second half of 2015 and is expected to be completed in early 2018. The estimated construction costs of the project totaling approximately RMB490.0 million will be financed by internal resources of the Group. During the year, total expenditure of RMB120.2 million was paid by the Group for the new headquarters.

The Group maintains good business relationship with its suppliers, which benefits its supply chain management, and enables it to control costs without sacrificing quality by engaging the suitable fabric suppliers and processing plants. Meanwhile, the Group upgraded its computer system for inventory management in the second half of 2016 to better manage its inventory. While reducing the proportion of OEM purchases and increasing the proportion of original design products, the Group adheres to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price” and shares the benefits from its improved supply chain management with consumers by offering them products of better value-for-money.

Awards

“LILANZ” received a number of awards during the year. In the first half of 2016, “LILANZ” was named by the Chinese Public Welfare Fund for Brands (中國品牌發展公益基金) and the Organizing Committee of Chinese Chain Brand Development Conference (中國品牌連鎖發展大會組委會) as the “Top 50 Chain Brands in terms of Growth Potential in China in 2015 (二零一五年中國連鎖品牌最具成長潛力50強)”. In December, “LILANZ” was elected as one of the “Top 500 Brands in China (中國品牌500強)” by China Trustworthy Brand Laboratory (中誠信品牌實驗室) in accordance with CNISA10000: 2005 Global Brand Value Verification Standards (CNISA10000: 2005全球品牌價值驗證標準).

In January 2017, “LILANZ” was named the “Most Internationally-Competitive National Brand in PRC Menswear Industry (中國男裝行業最具國際競爭力民族品牌)” at the second “Innovation and Development for New Model of the Chinese Economy Summit (中國經濟新模式創新與發展峰會)” cum 2016 “Chinese Industry Leading Brands” (「中國行業領先品牌」) TV Festival, which is an event co-hosted by various organizations, including The Enterprise Observer (企業觀察報社), Network Operators Branch of China Association of Small and Medium Enterprises (中國中小企業協會網商分會), “Leaders”, a program broadcasted on CCTV’s securities information channel, of Central Studio of

PROSPECTS

As the new US president has taken office, the Brexit process would kick off and the European countries have entered their election year, the global economic outlook remains uncertain for 2017 and it is difficult to predict the direction of international capital flows. Against this backdrop, China faces rising economic downward pressure as well as increasing difficulties in the country's economic restructuring. The fluctuation of the Renminbi amid the volatility of the currency market has nonetheless affected the Chinese economy to a certain extent. The PRC consumer market outlook is not too optimistic.

There were no clear signs of recovery for China's menswear industry and it is expected that the industry consolidation will continue in 2017. The management believes that a company's ability to survive this operating environment hinges on its capability to innovate as well as the value-for-money of its products. The Group is confident that it will continue to outperform other industry peers.

China Lilang adheres to the strategy of “improving product quality without raising the price”, and continues to spare no effort in improving product design, craftsmanship and materials, with the aim of raising the proportion of original designs, enhancing the value-for-money of its products and increasing the competitiveness of its products and brand. The Group plans to leverage on its existing competitive edges to consolidate its existing markets in third- and fourth-tier cities, and at the same time to increase the brand's presence in first- and second-tier cities to boost its overall sales. In view of the satisfactory sales performance of the trial launch of “LILANZ” smart casual collection specialty stores in some first- and second-tier cities, the Group also plans to step up its efforts in product design and market development of such collection. It will establish a separate design and operation centre for the smart casual collection in Shanghai in the second half of 2017, so as to keep the brand abreast of market trends, better promote the holistic development of the collection and expand its market share effectively.

The Group will maintain a prudent approach to store opening and expects its retail stores to continue recording same-store sales growth through better products, improving channel management and optimizing store network. The core brand “LILANZ” targets to maintain the existing number of stores and will continue to optimize its store network. While non-performing stores will be closed down, new stores will be opened in suitable locations through first-tier distributors. In particular, more stores will be added in shopping malls in provincial capitals and prefecture-level cities. As for “L2”, which will discontinue its operation from fall 2017, the existing retail stores will gradually be closed down after spring and summer 2017 based on the progress of inventory clearance and operating conditions.

The 2017 fall trade fair just ended in early March. Thanks to the control over the fall and winter orders in 2016, while the retail sales of “LILANZ” continued to outperform other industry peers, the channel inventory for fall and winter products has returned to a healthy level. The distributors have high confidence in the Group's products, which improved the trade fair orders and the Group has recorded a high single-digit growth in order value.

In the long run, China Lilang will adhere to its multi-brand strategy and also proactively enhance the competitiveness and value-for-money of its products to further consolidate its leading position in the menswear industry, so as to sustain a long-term growth and reward its shareholders, employees and customers for their support.

This was mainly attributable to:

- Net cash inflows from operating activities amounting to RMB445.6 million. This compared to RMB668.7 million for last year. The decrease was mainly due to the drop in profit from operations of RMB130.7 million and the higher amount of income tax and dividend withholding tax paid totalling RMB227.6 million for the year (2015: RMB156.9 million).
- Net cash outflows from investing activities amounting to RMB34.2 million, comprising mainly capital expenditure for property, plant and equipment, land use rights and intangible assets totalling RMB144.5 million, increase in deposits held at banks with maturity over 3 months by RMB538.9 million, net of decrease in pledged bank deposits by RMB573.9 million and interest income of RMB74.7 million. 	2016 Days	2015 Days
Average inventory turnover days	76	64
Average trade receivables turnover days	92	79
Average trade payables turnover days	89	72

Inventory Turnover Days

The Group's average inventory turnover days was 76 days. This compared to 64 days for the year ended 31 December 2015.

The total inventory balance increased by RMB2.9 million to RMB294.4 million. Inventory balance for "LILANZ" decreased by RMB11.8 million to RMB257.5 million as the sales orders for 2017 spring and summer collections dropped by high single digit percentage. The inventory of finished goods were mostly the remaining 2016 winter products which were delivered in January and the 2017 spring and summer products.

Inventory balance for "L2" increased by RMB14.7 million to RMB36.9 million. The balance related to 2016 and 2017 spring and summer inventories. As at 31 December 2016, the Group had made full provision for inventories aged over 1 year according to its provision policy.

Trade Receivables Turnover Days

The average trade and bills receivables turnover days was 92 days. This compared to 79 days for 2015 and improved from 103 days for the interim period of the year. The total balance of trade and bills receivables decreased by 11.8% to RMB667.7 million over the year.

For "LILANZ", the balance decreased 5.6% to RMB638.0 million. This partly reflected the drop in sales of winter products year-on-year. As in previous years, additional credits have been granted to some of the distributors to encourage them to open large-scale stores in shopping malls. As at 31 December 2016, full provision had been made for over-due trade receivables totalling RMB9.2 million.

For "L2", as at 31 December 2016, total provisions of RMB71.5 million had been made for trade receivables to cover the over-due balances and the estimated doubtful debts in view of the proposed discontinuation of business after the 2017 spring and summer collections, leaving a net trade receivable balance of RMB29.7 million.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT POLICIES

The Group continues to control financial risks in a prudent manner. The functional currency of the Company is the Hong Kong Dollars and the Company's financial statements are translated into Renminbi for reporting and consolidation purposes. Foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of financial statements are directly recognized in equity as a separate reserve. As the Group conducts business transactions principally in Renminbi, the exchange rate risk at the Group's operational level is not significant. As at 31 December 2015, financial instruments were employed to hedge the currency risks of the non-functional currency denominated pledged bank deposits and bank loans of the related subsidiaries.

HUMAN RESOURCES

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

(A) ENVIRONMENT

The Group is committed to achieving environmental sustainability and incorporating it in daily operations, in strict compliance with the Environmental Protection Law of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), the Energy Conservation Law of the PRC and other related regulations. As the Group is principally engaged in the design, manufacturing and sales of apparel products, its operating activities do not generate any emissions or wastes that would severely pollute the environment.

This report covers the Group's headquarters in Jinjiang City, Fujian Province (the "Headquarters") and the production facilities for the Group's core brand "LILANZ" in Wuli Industrial Park, Fujian Province (the "Wuli Plant"). The Headquarters is mainly used for the core brand "LILANZ", and comprises office premises, a fabric testing centre, a workshop for samples and small production orders, a "LILANZ" flagship store, staff dormitories (including canteens, a coffee shop and a gym) and also the venue for the three trade fairs held every year.

Aspect A1: Emissions

The Group has formulated a production-plant management manual, setting out measures such as lawful discharge of sewage, reduction of air emissions through efficiency improvement in coal use of the boiler and reduction of non-hazardous wastes generated during the production process.

Air and greenhouse gas emissions generated by the Group's operating activities are limited. The Group does not own vehicle fleets, the transportation of raw materials and products are all outsourced to third-party transportation service providers. In addition, electricity consumed by both the Headquarters and the Wuli Plant are supplied by a hydroelectric power plant. Hydroelectricity transforms the potential energy of water without consuming any fossil fuels, it is therefore widely considered as a clean energy that does not emit any greenhouse gases such as carbon dioxide (CO₂) and methane (CH₄). Coal is only used by the Group for the boiler in the Wuli Plant to boil water to steam-iron apparels. Regular repairs and maintenance work for the boiler is carried out by the Group to ensure it functions normally. To reduce sulphur emissions, the Group uses low-sulphur coal and has installed desulfurization device in the boiler. Every year the Group commissions a third-party professional organization to audit air emissions from the boiler to ensure compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

The operating activities of the Group do not produce any hazardous wastes. The Wuli Plant has adopted the following measures to reduce non-hazardous wastes generated during the production process:

- 1) Cinders: premium coal is used to reduce the generation of cinders.
- 2) Scraps: the following measures are adopted to maximize the utilization rate of fabrics, thereby controlling costs and reducing scraps:
 - a) Strictly adhere to the minimal usage of fabrics and optimize cutting layouts with a computer program, based on product designs and respective fabric-waste allowances;
 - b) Reduce fabric wastes by providing training to workers to enhance their skills and by introducing templates to improve sewing accuracy; and
 - c) Optimize production equipment to avoid fabric wastes due to equipment ageing or failure. Several automatic fabric-cutting machines have been added over the past two years to improve the accuracy in cutting fabrics, while regular repairs and maintenance for production machinery and equipment are carried out.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT (CONTINUED)

The Group sells cinders to recyclers regularly, while scraps are regularly collected by recyclers to be converted into or reused in other products (such as gloves).

The operating activities of the Group generates limited amount of industrial sewage which is discharged through the municipal sewage system equipped with filters, ensuring no significant impact on the surrounding environment.

According to the key performance indicators ("KPIs") as set out in Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules, the Group's performance on sustainable development in terms of air and greenhouse gas emissions and waste generation is summarised as follows:

KPIs		For the year ended 31 December 2016
A1.1	Type of emissions and respective emissions data	Total air emissions (particulates, NO _x and SO ₂) of the boiler (note 1) were 11.08 tonnes (2015: 11.19 tonnes). The intensity (based on the total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant (note 2)) is 0.03 KG/RMB'000 (2015: 0.03 KG/RMB'000). The data is similar to that of 2015.
A1.2	Total greenhouse gas emissions and intensity	As noted above, greenhouse gas emissions generated by the Group's operating activities are limited.
A1.3	Total hazardous wastes produced and intensity	The operating activities of the Group have not produced any hazardous wastes.
A1.4	Total non-hazardous wastes produced and intensity (based on the total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant (note 2))	Cinders of 150.00 tonnes (2015: 160.00 tonnes); intensity of 0.45 KG/RMB'000 (2015: 0.48 KG/RMB'000). Premium coal has been used to reduce the generation of cinders. Scraps of 267.75 tonnes (2015: 182.76 tonnes); intensity of 0.80 KG/RMB'000 (2015: 0.55 KG/RMB'000). In addition to the high single digit percentage increase in production volume, intensity increases because the 2016 figure also included scraps produced in 2015.
A1.5	Measures to mitigate emissions and results achieved	Regular repairs and maintenance work for the boiler is carried out by the Group to ensure it functions normally. To reduce sulphur emissions, the Group uses low-sulphur coal and has installed desulfurization device in the boiler. The air emissions of the boiler conformed to the requirements of relevant laws and regulations.

A1.6	How hazardous and non-hazardous wastes are handled, reduction initiatives and results achieved	The operating activities of the Group have not produced any hazardous wastes. In respect of non-hazardous wastes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Premium coal is used to reduce the generation of cinders. Cinders produced are sold to recyclers on a regular basis. (2) The Group strictly controls the usage of fabrics and reduces scraps through production equipment upgrades, using a computer program to optimize cutting layouts and training workers. Scraps produced are collected by recyclers to be reused in other products.

Note 1: This assumes an average annual total working hours of the boiler is 2,200 hours.

Note 2: Total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant equals to total cost of sales for the core brand "LILANZ" less OEM procurement costs, subcontracting costs and sales tax surcharges.

Aspect A2: Use of Resources

The Group adheres to the "5S management system" and requires all employees to conserve water and electricity. Posters are put up in the office area and across the plants to enhance employees' awareness of energy saving and emission reduction. In respect of the use of electricity, both the Headquarters and the Wuli Plant have switched to LED lighting since late 2015. Security guards in the Wuli Plant check and make sure all production equipment and the lights in production workshops are powered off during lunch hour and after work. In respect of the use of coal, the Group conducts regular repairs and maintenance for the boiler to reduce any potential waste of resources due to equipment ageing or failure. In respect of water usage in production, water used in the boiler in the Wuli Plant is recycled through reflux line to improve water efficiency.

In respect of raw materials of products, the Group strictly controls the usage of raw materials based on the requirements of individual orders and reduces wastes through production equipment upgrades, using a computer program to optimize cutting layouts and training workers. As for the use of packaging materials, the Group avoids excessive packaging and maintains an appropriate balance between cost control, product protection and consumer demand. More environmental-friendly paper bags are used as shopping bags. Certain products are also individually packaged in plastic bags, non-woven bags or paper boxes for the protection against dirt, dust or damp.

The resources used in the Wuli Plant during the past two years are summarised as follows:

	Intensity (based on the annual sales of the core brand "LILANZ")	0.56 KG/RMB'000	0.53 KG/RMB'000

Note 1: Total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant equals to total cost of sales for the core brand "LILANZ" less OEM procurement costs, subcontracting costs and sales tax surcharges.

Note 2: This includes paper shopping bags, and plastic bags and non-woven bags used for the individual packaging of certain products produced in the Wuli Plant. Packaging materials of individual products purchased from OEM suppliers are excluded.

The consumption of electricity, coal, and water in the Wuli Plant varies, depending on the types of products, nature of fabrics, production processes as well as weather and temperature. The intensity of the weight of packaging materials purchased, which is calculated based on the annual sales of the core brand "LILANZ", has increased. This was mainly due to a decrease in the average unit price of products and an increase in retail sales volume for the year.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT (CONTINUED)

The resources used by the Headquarters during the past two years are summarised as follows:

		For the year ended 31 December
		2016	2015
Electricity	Consumption quantity	4,922,000 units	4,228,000 units

The electricity and water consumption varies depending on the weather, testing applications of different fabrics and the frequency of utilization of different production machinery in the sample workshop (including the embroidery machine and fabric printing machines added in 2016). Starting from August 2016, the Group has installed separate electricity meters to measure the electricity consumption by the fabric testing centre and sample workshop to improve the management of electricity consumption.

According to the KPIs set out in Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules, the Group's performance on sustainable development in terms of resource utilization is summarized as follows:

KPIs		For the year ended 31 December 2016
A2.1	Electricity consumption and intensity (based on the total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant or the annual sales of the core brand "LILANZ")	7,103,000 units (2015: 6,269,000 units); intensity of 8.70 units/RMB'000 (2015: 7.86 units/RMB'000). The increase in intensity reflects the high single digit percentage increase in production volume and the electricity consumption of the newly acquired embroidery machine and printing machines in the sample workshop located in the Headquarters. In addition, the rise in temperature also increased electricity consumed by air conditioners. According to the statistics, the average temperature in 2016 was 0.81°C higher than that of a normal year nationwide.
	Coal consumption and intensity (based on the total annual production cost of the Wuli Plant)	968.94 tonnes (2015: 1,038.12 tonnes); intensity of 2.89 KG/RMB'000 (2015: 3.12 KG/RMB'000).

Aspect A3: The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group's operating activities have no direct or significant impact on the environment and natural resources.

In respect of the control over the use of natural resources, water used in the boiler in the Wuli Plant is recycled through reflux line for better water efficiency. In addition, the Group promotes a paperless office and reduces the use of paper by using ERP system, OA system and mobile phone applications.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT to the shareholders of China Lilang Limited

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of China Lilang Limited ("the Company") and its subsidiaries ("the Group") set out on pages 63 to 111, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2016, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2016 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSA") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code") together with any ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in the Cayman Islands, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue recognition: Sales to distributors
Refer to note 3 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies on page 76.
The Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Revenue from distributors principally comprises revenue from sales of menswear goods, including tops, pants and accessories. Every year, the Group enters into a framework distribution agreement with each distributor and, in accordance with the terms of each agreement, menswear goods manufactured or sourced by the Group are delivered to the location designated by the distributor which is the point at which the risks and rewards of ownership of the menswear goods are considered to have been transferred to the distributor and the point at which revenue is recognised. The Group held a number of trade fairs during the year. A significant percentage of orders from distributors are secured during these trade fairs. We identified recognition of revenue from sales to distributors as a key audit matter because revenue is one of the key performance indicators of the Group and therefore there is an inherent risk of manipulation of the timing of recognition of revenue by management to meet specific targets.	Our audit procedures to assess the recognition of revenue from sales to distributors included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • inspecting agreements with distributors, on a sample basis, to understand the terms of the sales transactions including the terms of delivery and any sales return arrangements to assess if the Group's revenue recognition criteria were in accordance with the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards; • comparing the Group's revenue from distributors with the orders recorded at the trade fairs held by the Group; • assessing, on a sample basis, whether specific revenue transactions around the financial year end had been recognised in the appropriate financial period in accordance with the terms of sale as set out in the distribution agreements; • scrutinising the sales ledger after the year end to identify significant credit notes issued and sales returns and inspecting relevant underlying documentation to assess if the related adjustments to revenue had been accounted for in the appropriate financial period in accordance with the requirements of the prevailing accounting standards; • inspecting a sample of manual adjustments to revenue raised during the reporting period, enquiring of management the reasons for such adjustments and comparing the details of the adjustments with relevant underlying documentation.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chung Kai Ming.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Renminbi)

1 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), which collective term includes all applicable individual International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards ("IASs") and Interpretations issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the "IASB") and the applicable disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange"). A summary of significant accounting policies adopted by the Group is set out below.

(b) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2016 comprise the Company and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the "Group").

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi ("RMB") rounded to the nearest thousand. The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis except that the derivative financial instruments are stated at fair value as explained in note 1(v).

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of IFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in note 31.

(c) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is expected, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the group and other parties) are considered.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances, transactions and cash flows and any unrealised profits arising from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see note 1(i)(iii)).

(d) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see note 1(i)(iii)).

The cost of self-constructed items of property, plant and equipment includes the cost of materials, direct labour, the initial estimate, where relevant, of the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located, and an appropriate proportion of production overheads and borrowing costs (see note 1(t)).

No depreciation is provided in respect of construction in progress.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual value, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

- Buildings held for own use which are situated on leasehold land are depreciated over the shorter of the unexpired term of lease and their estimated useful lives, being no more than 40 years after the date of completion.
- Leasehold improvements shorter of 5 years or remaining term of the lease
- Plant and machinery 10 years
- Motor vehicles 5 years
- Office equipment 5 years
- Furniture and fixtures 5 years

Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are reviewed annually.

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

(e) Investment property

Investment property is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see note 1(i)(iii)).

Depreciation is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the shorter of the unexpired term of the lease and its estimated useful life, being no more than 40 years after the date of completion.

(f) Lease prepayments

Lease prepayments represent cost of acquiring land use rights paid to the PRC's governmental authorities. Land use rights are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses (see note 1(i)(iii)). Amortisation is charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the respective periods of the rights which are 50 years.

(g) Intangible assets

Intangible assets that are acquired by the Group are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation (where the estimated useful life is finite) and impairment losses (see note 1(i)(iii)).

Amortisation of intangible assets with finite useful lives is charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives. The following intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortised from the date they are available for use and their estimated useful lives are as follows:

— Computer software 5 years

Both the useful life and method of amortisation are reviewed annually.

(h) Operating lease charges

Leases which do not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the Group are classified as operating leases. Where the Group has the use of assets held under operating leases, payments made under the leases are charged to profit or loss in equal instalments over the accounting periods covered by the lease terms, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the leased asset. Lease incentives received are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments made. Contingent rentals are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

(i) Impairment of assets

(ii) Impairment of trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables that are stated at cost or amortised cost are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment. Objective evidence of impairment includes observable data that comes to the attention of the Group about one or more of the following loss events:

- significant financial difficulty of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- it becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; and
- a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of an investment in an equity instrument below its cost.

If any such evidence exists, any impairment loss is determined and recognised as follows:

- Trade and other receivables carried at amortised cost, the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition of these assets), where the effect of discounting is material. This assessment is made collectively where these financial assets share similar risk characteristics, such as similar past due status, and have not been individually assessed as impaired. Future cash flows for financial assets which are assessed for impairment collectively are based on historical loss experience for assets with credit risk characteristics similar to the collective group.

If in a subsequent period the amount of an impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be linked objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised, the impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss. A reversal of an impairment loss shall not result in the asset's carrying amount exceeding that which would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years.

Impairment losses are written off against the corresponding assets directly, except for impairment losses recognised in respect of trade receivables included within trade and other receivables, whose recovery is considered doubtful but not remote. In this case, the impairment losses for doubtful debts are recorded using an allowance account. When the Group is satisfied that recovery is remote, the amount considered irrecoverable is written off against trade receivables directly and any amounts held in the allowance account relating to that debt are reversed. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously charged to the allowance account are reversed against the allowance account. Other changes in the allowance account and subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off directly are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Impairment of other assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to identify indications that the following assets may be impaired or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment;
- construction in progress;
- investment property;
- lease prepayments;
- intangible assets; and
- investments in subsidiaries in the Company's statement of financial position.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

- Calculation of recoverable amount
The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).
- Recognition of impairment losses
An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss if the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying value of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable) or value in use (if determinable).
- Reversals of impairment losses
An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. A reversal of impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

(j) Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(k) Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables are initially recognised at fair value and thereafter stated at amortised cost less impairment losses for bad and doubtful debts (see note 1(i)(i)).

(l) Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are recognised initially at fair value less attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are stated at amortised cost with any difference between the amount initially recognised and redemption value being recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings, together with any interest and fees payable, using the effective interest method.

(m) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

(n) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition.

(o) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values.

Contributions to appropriate local defined contribution retirement schemes pursuant to the relevant labour rules and regulations in the PRC are recognised as an expense in profit or loss as incurred, except to the extent that they are included in the cost of inventories not yet recognised as an expense.

(ii) Share-based payments

The fair value of share options granted to employees of the Group is recognised as an employee cost with a corresponding increase in a capital reserve within equity. The fair value is measured at the grant date using applicable option-pricing models, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. Where the employees have to meet vesting conditions before becoming unconditionally entitled to the options, the total estimated fair value of the options is spread over the vesting period, taking into account the probability that the options will vest.

During the vesting period, the number of share options that is expected to vest is reviewed. Any resulting adjustment to the cumulative fair value recognised in prior years is charged/credited to the profit or loss for the year of the review, unless the original employee expenses qualify for recognition as an asset, with a corresponding adjustment to the capital reserve. On the vesting date, the amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the actual number of options that vest (with a corresponding adjustment to the capital reserve) except where forfeiture is only due to not achieving vesting conditions that relate to the market price of the Company's shares. The equity amount is recognised in the capital reserve until either the option is exercised (when it is transferred to the share premium account) or the option expires (when it is released directly to retained profits).

(p) Income tax

Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities, and all deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences, provided those differences relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse either in the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference or in periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward. The same criteria are adopted when determining whether existing taxable temporary differences support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and credits, that is, those differences are taken into account if they relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse in a period, or periods, in which the tax loss or credit can be utilised.

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from goodwill not deductible for tax purposes, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided they are not part of a business combination), and temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that, in the case of taxable differences, the Group controls the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or in the case of deductible differences, unless it is probable that they will reverse in the future.

The amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

(Expressed in Renminbi)

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, if the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

- in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or
- in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:
 - the same taxable entity; or
 - different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.

(q) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for other liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(r) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Provided it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue and costs, if applicable, can be measured reliably, revenue is recognised in profit or loss as follows:

(i) Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the customer has accepted the related risks and rewards of ownership. Revenue excludes value added tax and is after deduction of returns and any trade discounts.

(ii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method.

(iii) Government grants

Unconditional discretionary government grants from the local municipal government authorities are recognised in the profit or loss as other net income on a cash receipt basis.

(s) Translation of foreign currencies

Items included in the financial statements of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency that best reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstances relevant to that entity ("functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries outside mainland China is Hong Kong Dollars and the functional currency of the subsidiaries in mainland China is Renminbi.

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates.

The results of operations outside mainland China are translated into Renminbi at the average exchange rates for the year which approximating the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Statement of financial position items are translated into Renminbi at the closing foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of reporting period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the exchange reserve.

On disposal of an operation outside mainland China, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences relating to that foreign operation is reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the profit or loss on disposal is recognised.

(t) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the year in which they are incurred.

(u) Research and development

Research and development costs comprise all costs that are directly attributable to research and development activities or that can be allocated on a reasonable basis to such activities. Because of the nature of the Group's research and development activities, the criteria for the recognition of such costs as an asset are generally not met until late in the development stage of the project when the remaining development costs are immaterial. Hence both research costs and development costs are generally recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

(v) Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are recognised initially at fair value. At the end of each reporting period the fair value is remeasured. The gain or loss on remeasurement to fair value is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

(w) Related parties

(i) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:

- (a) has control or joint control over the Group;
- (b) has significant influence over the Group; or
- (c) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.

- (b) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
- (c) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.

- (h) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the group or to the group's parent.

Close family members of an individual are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that individual in their dealings with the entity.

(x) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

The Group operates in a single business segment, manufacturing and wholesaling of menswear and accessories in the PRC. Accordingly, no segmental analysis is presented.

2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The IASB has issued a few amendments to IFRSs that are first effective for the current accounting period of the Group and the Company. None of these developments have had a material effect on how the Group's results and financial position for the current or prior periods have been prepared or presented.

The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period.

3 REVENUE

The principal activities of the Group are manufacturing and wholesaling of branded menswear and related accessories in the PRC. Revenue represents the sales value of goods sold less returns, discounts and value added taxes ("VAT").

During the years ended 31 December 2016 and 2015, there was no customer with whom transactions exceeded 10% of the Group's revenue. Details of concentrations of credit risk arising from customers are set out in note 28(a).

(f) Capital management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, by pricing products and services commensurately with the level of risk and by securing access to finance at a reasonable cost.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher shareholders' returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position, and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions.

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

26 EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Defined contribution retirement plans

The PRC subsidiaries of the Group participate in defined contribution retirement benefit schemes (the "Schemes") organised by the PRC municipal and provincial government authorities whereby the PRC subsidiaries are required to make contributions at the rate of 12% to 20% of the eligible employees' salaries to the Schemes. The Group has accrued for the required contributions which are remitted to the respective local government authorities when the contributions become due. The local government authorities are responsible for the pension obligations payable to the retired employees covered under the Schemes.

The Group also operates a Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF scheme") under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for employees employed in Hong Kong. The MPF scheme is a defined contribution retirement scheme administered by independent trustees. Under the MPF scheme, the Group and its employees are each required to make contributions to the scheme at 5% of the employees' relevant income, subject to a cap of monthly relevant income of HK$30,000. 28 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE

Exposure to credit, liquidity, interest rate and currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(a) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade and other receivables, and deposits with banks. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis.

(i) Trade and other receivables

In respect of trade and other receivables, individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within 90 to 240 days from the date of billing. The Group will also obtain deposits from customers prior to delivery of goods when credit limits granted are temporarily exceeded.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer, therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual customers. At the end of the reporting period, 8.9% (2015: 4.6%) and 13.1% (2015: 10.0%) of the total trade and other receivables was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers respectively.

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade and other receivables are set out in note 18.

At 31 December 2016, the Group had endorsed bank acceptance bills to its suppliers totalling RMB202,100,000 (2015: RMB289,450,000), which were derecognised as financial assets. The transferees have recourse to the Group in case of default by the issuing banks. In such cases, the Group would have to repurchase these bank acceptance bills at face value. Because these bank acceptance bills mature within six months from issue, the Group's maximum loss in case of default is RMB202,100,000 (2015: RMB289,450,000) before these bills mature by 30 June 2017.

The Group only accepts bank acceptance bills issued by major banks in the PRC and considers that the credit risk associated with such bank acceptance bills to be insignificant.

28 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE (CONTINUED)(a) Credit risk (Continued)*(iii) Deposits with banks

The Group mitigates its exposure to credit risk by placing deposits with financial institutions with established credit ratings. Given the high credit ratings of the banks, management does not expect any counterparty to fail to meet its obligations.

(b) Liquidity risk

Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash requirements. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The following tables present the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay.

28 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE (CONTINUED)

(c) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from bank loans. The Group's interest rate profiles as monitored by management is set out in (i) below.

(i) Interest rate profile

The following table details the interest rate profile of the Group's interest bearing financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period:

	2016		2015
	Effective interest rate	Amount RMB'000	Effective interest rate	Amount RMB'000
Fixed rate instruments:
Bank loans	—	—	4.52%	384,018
Variable rate instruments:
Bank loans	1.54%	493,528	3.30%	619,999
		493,528		1,004,017

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2016, it is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 100 basis points in bank loans interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would have decreased/increased the Group's profit after tax and retained profits by approximately RMB4,935,000 (2015: RMB6,200,000). Other components of equity would not be affected by the changes in interest rates.

The sensitivity analysis above indicates the impact on the Group's profit for the year and retained profits that would arise assuming that there is an annualised impact on interest expense by a change in interest rates. The analysis has been performed on the same basis in 2015.

28 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE (CONTINUED)(d) Currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk primarily through contractual obligations, bank deposits, pledged bank deposits and bank loans that are denominated in a foreign currency, i.e. a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate. The currencies giving rise to this risk are primarily Hong Kong Dollars and Renminbi.

The Group actively monitors foreign exchange rate fluctuations to ensure that its net exposure is kept to an acceptable level.

(i) Exposure to currency risk

The following table details the Group's major exposure as at the end of the reporting period to currency risk arising from recognised assets or liabilities denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. For presentation purposes, the amounts of the exposure are shown in Renminbi, translated using the spot rate at the end of the reporting period. Differences resulting from the translation of the financial statements of operations outside Mainland China into the Group's presentation currency are excluded.

	Exposure to foreign currencies (expressed in Renminbi)
	2016		2015
	Hong Kong Dollars RMB'000	Renminbi RMB'000	Hong Kong Dollars RMB'000	Renminbi RMB'000

Net exposure to currency risk	8,536	(168,629)	17,837	6,158

As at 31 December 2015, forward foreign exchange contracts were employed to cover the currency risks of the above non-functional currency denominated pledged bank deposits and bank loans of the related entity.

(iii) Sensitivity analysis

The following table indicates the instantaneous changes in the Group's profit after taxation (and retained profits) that would arise if the foreign exchange rates to which the Group has significant exposure as at the end of the reporting period had changed, assuming all other risk variables remained constant.

	2016		2015
	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign exchange rates in %	Effect on profit after taxation and retained profits RMB'000	Increase/ (decrease) in foreign exchange rates in %	Effect on profit after taxation and retained profits RMB'000
Hong Kong Dollars	1 (1)	67 (67)	1 (1)	(1,447) 1,447
Renminbi	1 (1)	(1,686) 1,686	1 (1)	(314) 314

Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent an aggregation of the instantaneous effects on the Group's profit after taxation (and retained profits) measured in the respective functional currencies, translated into Renminbi at the exchange rate ruling as at the end of the reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis assumes that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to re-measure those financial instruments held by the Group which expose the Group to foreign currency risk as at the end of the reporting period. The analysis excludes differences that would result from the translation of the financial statements of operations outside Mainland China into the Group's presentation currency. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2015.

(e) Fair value

All financial assets and liabilities are carried at amounts not materially different from their fair values as at 31 December 2016 and 2015.

	2016 RMB'000	2015 RMB'000
Within one year	1,606	1,872

None of the leases includes contingent rentals.

30 MATERIAL RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

In addition to the related party information disclosed elsewhere in the financial statements, the Group entered into the following material related party transaction.

On 19 December 2013, the Group entered into a three year lease in respect of certain leasehold properties with Jinlang (Fujian) Investments Co., Ltd. which is wholly owned by Mr. Wang Dong Xing, Mr. Wang Liang Xing and Mr. Wang Cong Xing, three of the executive directors and controlling shareholders of the Company. During the year ended 31 December 2016, total rental paid or payable by the Group under the tenancy agreement amounted to RMB3,120,000 (2015: RMB3,120,000).

31 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The methods, estimates and judgements the directors used in applying the Group's accounting policies have a significant impact on the Group's financial position and operating results. Some of the accounting policies require the Group to apply estimates and judgements, on matters that are inherently uncertain. The critical accounting judgements in applying the Group's accounting policies are described below.

(a) Depreciation and amortisation

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives. Intangible assets except for those with indefinite lives are amortised on straight line basis over the estimated useful lives. The Group reviews annually the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, based on the Group's experience with similar assets and taking into account anticipated technology changes. The depreciation and amortisation expenses for future periods are adjusted if there are significant changes from previous estimation.

(b) Impairments

The Group reviews the carrying amounts of the assets at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment. When indication of impairment is identified, management prepares discounted future cashflow to assess the differences between the carrying amount and value in use and provide for impairment loss. Any change in the assumption adopted in the cash flow forecasts would increase or decrease in the provision of impairment loss and affect the Group's net asset value.

Impairment losses for bad and doubtful debts are assessed and provided based on the directors' regular review of ageing analysis and evaluation of collectibility. A considerable level of judgement is exercised by the directors when assessing the credit worthiness and past collection history of each individual customer.

An increase or decrease in the above impairment loss would affect the net profit in the year and in future years.

(c) Income taxes

Determining income tax provisions involves judgement on the future tax treatment of certain transactions and interpretation of tax rules. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of transactions and tax provisions are set up accordingly. The tax treatment of such transactions is reconsidered periodically to take into account all changes in tax legislation.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences. As those deferred tax assets can only be recognised to the extent that it is probable that future profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised, management's judgement is required to assess the probability of future taxable profits.

(Expressed in Renminbi)

31 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (CONTINUED)(d) Net realisable value of inventories

The Group performs regular reviews of the carrying amounts of inventories with reference to aged inventories analysis, projections of expected future saleability of goods and management experience and judgement. Based on this review, write-down of inventories will be made when the carrying amounts of inventories decline below their estimated net realisable value. Due to changes in market conditions, actual saleability of goods may be different from estimation and profit or loss could be affected by differences in this estimation.

(e) Impairment of trade and other receivables

The Group estimates the impairment allowances for trade and other receivables by assessing the recoverability based on credit history and prevailing market conditions. This requires the use of estimates and judgements. Allowances are applied to trade and other receivables where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the balances may not be collectible. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will affect the carrying amounts of trade and other receivables and thus the impairment loss in the period in which such estimate is changed. The Group reassesses the impairment allowances at the end of each reporting period.

(f) Bank acceptance bills

As set out in note 28(a)(i), the Group considers that the credit risk associated with bank acceptance bills issued by major banks in the PRC to be insignificant. The Group monitors the credit risk of issuing banks. The judgement to derecognise bank acceptance bills upon discounting or endorsement is reviewed when the credit risk of issuing banks deteriorates significantly.

32 POSSIBLE IMPACT OF AMENDMENTS, NEW STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2016

Up to the date of issue of these financial statements, the IASB has issued a number of amendments and new standards which are not yet effective for the year ended 31 December 2016 and which have not been adopted in these financial statements.

These include the following which may be relevant to the Group:

		Effective for accounting periods beginning on or after
IFRS 15	Revenue from Contracts with Customers	1 January 2018
IFRS 9	Financial Instruments	1 January 2018
IFRS 16	Leases	1 January 2019

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these amendments is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the Group's results and financial position.
